

Don't mess with NJ's do not call list. For once I can pick up the phone with a good chance that it is someone I wish to talk to. In addition, my work phone (a municipal Fire Department phone) is not being barraged by telemarketers, or worse, automated calls that can't be disconnected.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter, but leave it alone.